A Scottish Lord For Christmas

A Scottish Lord for Christmas by Lauren Smith is book Three in the "Sins and Scandals" series. This is the story of Lady Rowena Pepperwirth and Quinn MacCauley, Lord Forres. I have read the other books (and Loved them!!) in this series but feel this can easily be a standalone series.

The Bishop of Paisley has urged the Scottish government to implement a 24-hour lifting of restrictions on gatherings and celebrations over Christmas day. In a letter to The Sunday Times, Bishop John Keenan compared the idea to the Christmas Day truce during World War I and said he hoped for “some kind of family Christmas”.
