The 9 Natural Laws of Leadership. by Warren Blank; American Management Association, 1995. What is leadership? According to Dr. Warren Blank in his book The 9 Natural Laws of Leadership, defining leadership is not a simple matter - a leadership strategy that works in one particular situation may not work again at another time under the same conditions. Instead of providing a simple definition, the author presents leadership in terms of nine natural laws that offer an integrated portrait of ...

Natural law (Latin: ius naturale, lex naturalis) is a system of law that purports to be based on values intrinsic to human nature that can be deduced and applied independent of positive law (the enacted laws of a state or society). According to natural law theory, all people have inherent rights, conferred not by act of legislation but by "God, nature, or reason."

~~Natural law Wikipedia~~

"This law is called 'natural,' not in reference to the nature of irrational beings [that is, animals – it is not a law of biology], "but because reason, which decrees it, properly belongs to human nature" (CCC #1955). For example, the Church teaches that artificial contraception is against the natural law, not because it's a rational human intervention rather than an irrational biological ...
